

IRK Magazine 🏠 · 4 days ago · 3 min read

PARIS PHOTO is Back Nov 11-14 2021

After a long Covid break Paris Photo is back and we are excited to share some of our favorite exhibitions. This annual event brings together collectors, art lovers, galleries, and editors from all over the world. Meeting with the world's finest artists, sales of historic and modern works of art, as well as rare and limited editions, seminars, and guided tours to learn everything there is to know about photography: there are a plethora of reasons to attend this annual event.

order your tickets at <https://www.parisphoto.com/> as Paris Photo is open to the public Nov 11-14 with the opening Nov 10 at the Grande Palais Ephemere located opposite the Eiffel tower.

Ceysson & Bénétière

Ceysson & Bénétière is participating for the first time in Paris Photo with a selection of photographic works produced by the great figures of art represented by the gallery: ORLAN, Mounir Fatmi, Tania Mouraud, as well as by the major photographer and visual artist Aurélie Pétrel to be seen at Booth A18

Nu descendant l'escalier avec talons, 1967. © ORLAN